

A modern kitchen featuring a long, sleek stainless steel countertop. On the left, a large window with a grid pattern allows natural light to enter. Below the countertop, a built-in oven and a dishwasher are visible. To the right, a sink with a modern faucet is integrated into the counter. A wooden cutting board and a knife block are placed on the counter near the sink. The kitchen cabinets are made of stainless steel, and the floor is made of light-colored wood.
